ORGANIC FARM VISIT REPORT

(2023)

Event Date: June 24, 2023 Location: Beejom Farms, Noida

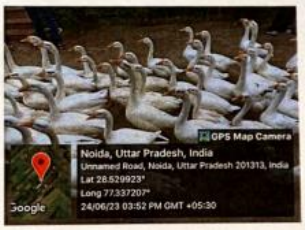
EVENT DESCRIPTION

A field trip was organized for a group of nine students of B.Sc. (H) Home Sc.-Sem II by Dr. Shweta Agarwal to visit the 'BEEJOM' organic farm located in Noida.

This trip aimed to provide an experiential and contextualized understanding of organic farming. They visited the organic farm guided by the Manager, Mr. Aman Raj. He took the students around the farm and explained about multi-cultivation methods.



They have all species of domestic animals. They have a lovely cottage called Dogpur that houses their beautiful rescued dogs, a cattery that is home for their cats, a cattle shed that houses rescued cattle, many rabbits, a duck and goose herd headed by iconic Tinku lal, and some goats. They are all vaccinated and neutered. The food that they serve is vegan, seasonal, nutritious and extremely diverse.

They use sustainable vegan substitutes when required, like Oat Milk, Peanut Curd and Tofu instead of paneer. Most of the major ingredients are grown by them. The food is cooked mostly using the Bio-gas system using the that they have installed. They have a vermiculture unit as well. The students and faculty members were enthrilled and had an adventurous trip.
