fun. The year concluded on a heartfelt note with a Valentine's Day Event on 16th February 2024, celebrating love and friendship among the college community.

4 Outreach programs by SOCDC and NSS focus on underprivileged communities.

4a. The Social Outreach and Community Development Committee (SOCDC) of Vivekananda College has actively collaborated with the Slum Swaraj Foundation (SSF), an NGO dedicated to raising awareness among children in Jhilmil Colony, opening avenues for self-development, and reducing inter-generational academic poverty through regular educational camps. Additionally, SOCDC has partnered with the Delhi Legal State Authority (DLSA) to promote legal, health, and environmental awareness among families residing in the slums of Jhilmil Colony. To engage freshers, SOCDC organized two orientation programs on 22nd August and 19th September 2023, successfully recruiting new volunteers. Several impactful activities were conducted throughout the academic year:

- Camp Visit: On 30th September 2023, 60 SOCDC student volunteers conducted physical classes for children in Jhilmil Colony.
- Game Stall: On 6th November 2023, SSF volunteers set up a game stall as part of the Diwali Delight celebrations, engaging 16 participants.
- Donation Drive: From 22nd November to 2nd December 2023, SOCDC organized a cloth donation drive, with active participation from 12 student volunteers.
- Seminar on Cyber Law: On 30th January 2024, SOCDC, in collaboration with DLSA, hosted a seminar to raise awareness about cyber laws.
- Donation Drive: On 7th February 2024, 17 SOCDC volunteers distributed stationery items and eatables to children in Jhilmil Colony.

These initiatives underscore SOCDC's commitment to social development and creating meaningful change in underprivileged communities.

4b. NSS outreach activities

The NSS unit of Vivekananda College organized the event "Meri Maati, Mera Desh" on 22nd August 2023, featuring patriotic performances by cultural societies, including a dance and the NSS song, celebrating India's heritage and unity. The "Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat" event was held on 19th September 2023 in Sharda Hall from 1 PM to 3 PM, with 27 volunteers actively participating in the activities. The "Seema Samvad" event, organized by NSS VNC in collaboration with Seema Jagran Munch, was held on 17th October 2023 in Sharda Hall from 2:30 PM to 5:30 PM, featuring chief guests Lt. Jn. Vishnu Kant, Lt. Jn. Dr. Nitin, and Commander Tripti Dubey. This is committed to carry out necessary research towards appropriate measures for the complete security of India's diverse borders and appropriate solutions to the challenges in the path of all-round development of border citizens. The NSS Unit of Vivekananda College, in collaboration with the North East Cell, organized a Donation Drive from 6th to 9th November 2023 to support those affected by the floods in Sikkim and Manipur. The three-day drive took place on the college premises and aimed to provide relief materials and assistance to the flood-stricken regions.

5. Promoting tolerance and harmony through committees such as the Vivekananda Committee, Gandhi Study Circle, and Ambedkar & Social Justice.

5a. Gandhi Study Circle has been quite proactive and productive in meeting the goal of socio-economic, linguistic and communal inclusiveness through its various activities and cultural programmes. Keeping in tune with its commitment to an inclusive environment and fostering tolerance and harmony among diversities, Gandhi Study Circle celebrated Gandhi Jayanti on 10th October, 2023 by Reliving the memories of the Father of the nation through poems, bhajans, patriotic songs, thoughts etc. Also, Martyr's day was commemorated on 30th January, 2024 in Sharda hall of the college through a Reading Session. The program aimed to honour the indomitable spirit and value of those who fought for justice and liberty.

5b. Vivekananda Committee

An interactive discussion on the topic "The Essence of Education Is Concentration Of Mind" (famous quote of Swami Vivekananda ji) was held in the room no. 65 (12.00 P.M. onwards) on 31st October, 2023. The event started with Vaidik hymns and Kulgeet by the students of Music department of the College. It was followed by the speeches, self-composed poems and an audio-video presentation based on Swami Vivekanand ji's thoughts on the concentration of mind. The students also participated in an interesting quiz round on the life and philosophy of Swamiji. Prof. Neeta Mathur, convenor of Vivekananda committee and Mrs Anita Bakshi, senior faculty in Mathematics Department also shared valuable thoughts from Swamiji's life and thoughts. This event was anchored by Ms. Sonali Sinha (B.A. Prog. II yr.) and coordinated by Ms. Saumya Singh (Student coordinator). Ms Preeti Chachia was the teacher coordinator and Prof. (Dr.) Neeta Mathur was the convener of this event. The session received enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty.
