As part of ‘Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav’—a flagship of cultural activities initiated by University of Delhi to celebrate 75 years of India’s Independence, Gandhi Study Circle of Vivekananda College organized an inter-college PPT Presentation Competition on 21st September, 2021 from 3:30 to 5:00 pm. The theme of the competition was ‘Gandhi’s idea of Satyagraha and its Relevance’ (Gandhiji Ki Satyagraha-Avdhaarana evam Iski Prasaangikta). The event was judged by two faculty members from the college itself, namely Dr. Kamini Taneja, Department of Sanskrit and Ms. Vandana Rathore, Deptment of Economics, respectively.

The competition began with the judges being apprised of the rules and conditions to judge the participants by Ekta, the student coordinator. Umaima, a member of the society, handled the technical part by calling out the names of the participants for their turn to present. A total of 10 entries were received and presented before the judges. The presentations were quite informative and insightful as many points from Gandhiji's life and his experiences as freedom fighter were taken up for discussion.

In the end, the judges announced their results and the meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the judges by Dr. Deepa Varshney, convener, Gandhi Study Circle and thanks everyone present on the platform for their valuable time and patience. The idea of satyagraha

- No Use of violence
- Fight for injustice will always be won
- Power of truth
- A process of self-scrunity

Participants: Sushmita, You, AMIT, Umaima, 10 others

Criticism

- Called out as 'unrealistic' and an idea that cannot be used universally, impractical
- Satyagrah relies on the morale and ethics of the opponent
- Not all stakeholders could participate in it
- Often triggered unprovoked violence
- Difficult for people without religious/spiritual beliefs
- Provocative and coercive could easily stem
- Useful in open societies, not repressive ones
