8. Freedom - New Insights for Postmodern Times

"Ehsaas", The Creative Writing Club of Vivekananda College, NAAC Accredited Grade 'A', University of Delhi is organized an Inter-College creative writing competition "Freedom - New Insights for Postmodern Times" in order to commemorate 75 years of India's Independence as part of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav. The event took place on 8 September 2021, Wednesday at 10:00 AM using Google Meet Link at 10:00 AM. Nineteen participants registered for the event through a Google Form which was circulated amongst students of the college and across different constituent colleges of University of Delhi. Students from constituent colleges of Delhi University such as Motilal Nehru College, Daulat Ram College and Zakir Hussain College participated in the event along with students from Jamia Milia Islamia and other State Universities. The link for the meeting was https://meet.google.com/vkw-jhjf-xcd?authuser=0&hs=122. Participants were allowed to write in English/Hindi in accordance with their linguistic proficiency. Five topics were given to the participants at the beginning of the competition keeping in mind the theme of 75 years of Indian Independence. Participants were given one hour and thirty minutes from the time of commencement and announcement of topic to complete and submit their entries. Out of which one hour and fifteen minutes were reserved for completion of writing and fifteen minutes were utilised for scanning and mailing the transcripts. All non-fictional forms of self-expression such as essay and article were discouraged. Participants were allowed to choose either prose or verse as their preferred mode of creative expression. Participants could use fictional modes of literary expression such as short-story, poem, play, monologue, anecdote, limerick, satire, lampoon etc. Only individual participation was allowed. The word limit for the submissions was 1500 words. Participants were adjudged on the basis of originality, imaginative expression and linguistic competence by our distinguished judges (Dr. Saroj Kumari and Mr. Yumnam Rocky). Mr. Naman Joshi (First Prize), Mr. Abhishek Suman (Second Prize) and Ms. Vanshika

Trivedi (Third Prize) were the winners of the competition. Results were declared on 9 September 2021. The event was hosted and coordinated by Ms. Ekta Sharma (B.A. (H) Political Science II), Ms. Jahanvi Wadhwa (B.A. (H) English II) and Ms. Gargi Tyagi (B.A. (H) English II)

12. Two Day National Event, Kṛśatva

Énnoia- The Debating Society of Vivekananda College, University of Delhi, organised a Two Day National Event, Kṛśatva on 1-2 October 2021. The National Panel Discussion 'Candid Conversations Over Coffee' was conducted on 1 October 2021 from 3.30 p.m. onwards on Google Meet platform with the link https://meet.google.com/wor-zfng-yzv and was also broadcasted on Youtube with the link

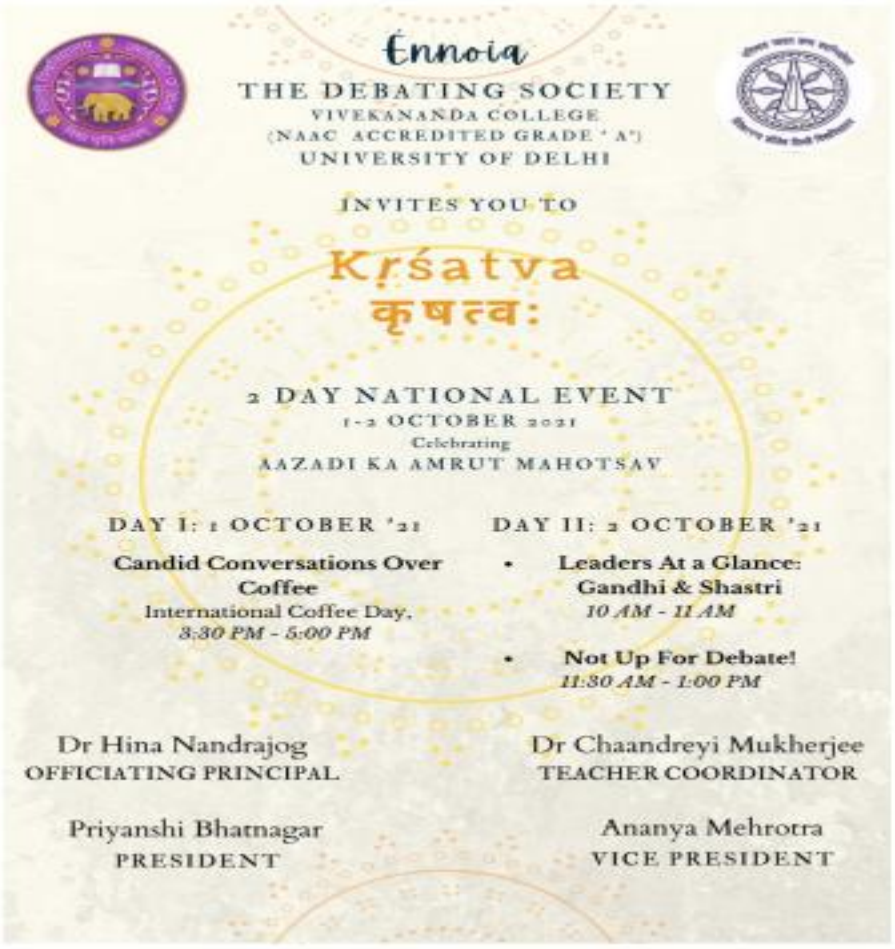

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hAKXWdUOoOQ. The competition was hosted by teacher coordinator, Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee, and was moderated by Priyanshi Bhatnagar, President and Ananya Mehrotra, Vice President of Ennoia. 27 participants from all over India had sent their write-ups on "one world, one government" along with their registrations.

After a careful perusal, 7 participants were selected to engage in the panel discussion. The following were the participants:

- Sukanya Saha, Hindu College, University of Delhi
- Abhinav Bhambi, Institute of Law, Kurukshetra University
- Ananya Singh, St. Bede's College, Shimla
- Alan Joseph Benny, Kristu Jayanti College, Bengaluru
- Upma Chandra, Vivekananda College, University of Delhi
- Shanya Walia, Gitarattan International Business School, Indraprastha University
- Khyati Pareek, Shiv Nadar University

As part of Azaadi ka Amrit Mahotsav and International Coffee Day, this national panel discussion had as its topic "Consequences of a Borderless World." The moderators provided excellent cues such as – 1) A borderless world will provide a high order concept of assessing resources and opportunities that were previously unavailable, do you believe so?, 2) Would a borderless world allow for greater decentralisation of power and transnational governance?, and many others. The discussion was scintillating with diverse range of thoughts, ideas and opinions providing a proliferation of insights. Participants, thoughtfully and perceptively responded to the cues with a lot of empathy, sensitivity and open-mindedness, as well as with strong factual details and examples from all over the world. Dr. Hina Nandrajog, Officiating Principal, Vivekananda College, warmly appreciated the speakers for the clarity of their thoughts and powers of articulation. The first of its kind for the Debating Society, this event was an enthralling experience for the speakers as well as the audience. Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee concluded the event by thanking the participants, the student organisers and the audience, and informing everybody about the two competitions scheduled the next day.

‘Leaders at a Glance: Gandhi and Shastri’ (National Elocution Competition) Énnoia- The Debating Society of Vivekananda College, University of Delhi, organised a Two Day National Event, Kṛśatva on 1-2 October 2021. The National Elocution Competition ‘Leaders at a Glance: Gandhi and Shastri’ was conducted on 2 October 2021 from 10 a.m. onwards on Google Meet platform with the link https://meet.google.com/dxf-idje-mfs and was also broadcasted on Youtube with the link https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RJG1ioVF3WQ . As part of Azaadi ka Amrut Mahotsav, the topic was especially chosen to commemorate the birth anniversaries of two great leaders of India, Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri. The programme was initiated by Dr. Hina Nandrajog, Officiating Principal, Vivekananda College, who inspired everybody with her enlightening words. The competition was hosted by teacher coordinator, Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee, and was anchored by Shaily Khare and Yugmita Kesh, members of Ennoia. 11 participants from all over India enthusiastically participated in the event and shared their insightful views to remember and honour the brave-hearts and leaders with iron wills, the fruits of whose contributions and sacrifice are enjoyed today. The competition was judged by Dr. Anjana Kumari, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Vivekananda College and Mr. Abhishek Bhaskar, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Vivekananda College. As the judges collated their marks, a short animated film was shown to keep the audience entertained. The competition was an enthralling experience for the speakers as well as the audience. The following participants were announced as the top three winners: First Prize: Tulip Sharma, Amity Law School, Chhattisgarh Second Prize: Rishab Agarwal, Netaji Subhash University of Technology, Delhi Third Prize: Kanishk G A, Christ University, Bengaluru The competition concluded with very interesting and informative words by Dr. Anjana Kumari regarding the philosophy of Gandhi and applying it in the daily lives. Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee thanked the audience for participation and informed them about the next event, beginning shortly.

Énnoia- The Debating Society of Vivekananda College, University of Delhi, organised a Two Day National Event, Kṛśatva on 1-2 October 2021. The National Turncoat Competition 'Not up for Debate' was conducted on 2 October 2021 from 11:30 a.m. onwards on Google Meet platform with the link https://meet.google.com/rujnrky-dzq and was also broadcasted on Youtube with the link https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hAKXWdUOoOQ. As part of Azaadi ka Amrut Mahotsav, the topic was to interrogate the various effects of British rule in the 75 years of Indian Independence. Admirers of British rule point to the economic developments, the legal and administrative system, the fact that India became the centre of world politics. Critics of British rule generally point out that all of these benefits went to a tiny British ruling class and the majority of Indians gained little. 11 participants from all over India actively participated in the event and shared their insightful views. This was a completely new and exciting format where the students were given various topics and had two minutes to frame their points. Then, they were required to speak one minute for and one minute against the motion. Hosted by teacher coordinator Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee, the competition was anchored by Aswathy Vijay and Divyanshi, members of Ennoia. Ms. Deborisha Dutta, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, The NorthCap University, Gurgaon was the judge of the event. As the judge collated her marks, a short animated film was shown to keep the audience entertained. The competition was an enthralling experience for the speakers as well as the audience. The following participants were announced as the top three winners: First Prize: Prathik Jayaprakash, Kristu Jayanti College, Bengaluru Second Prize: Rashi Sharma, Maharashtra National Law

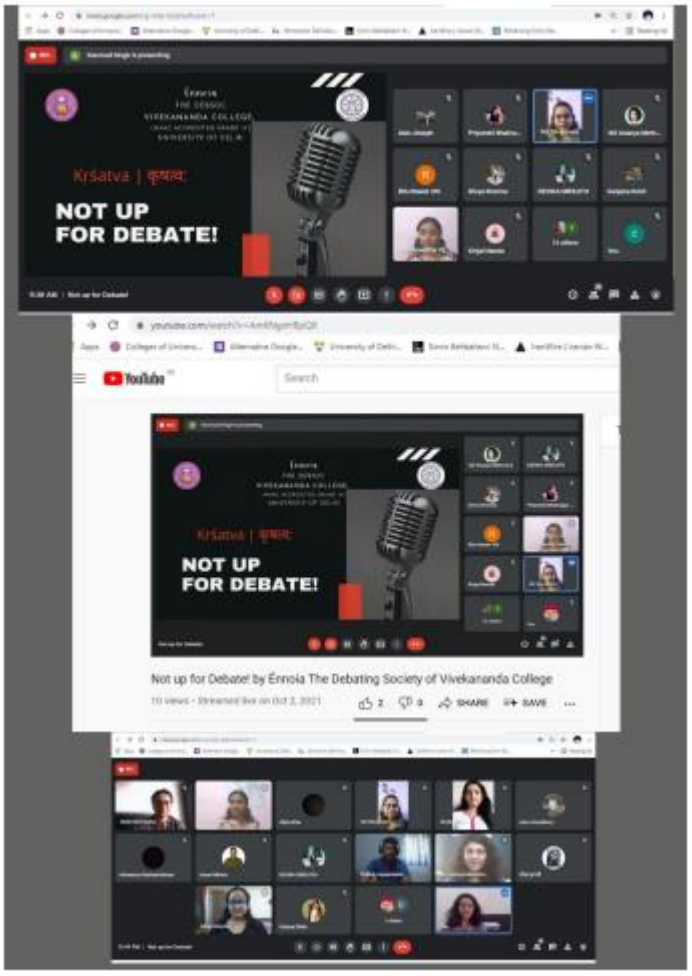

University, Nagpur Third Prize: Alan Joseph Benny, Kristu Jayanti College, Bengaluru The event ended with congratulatory remarks from the judge, Ms. Dutta and a vote of thanks by Dr. Mukherjee.

13. The fundraiser event- AZAL

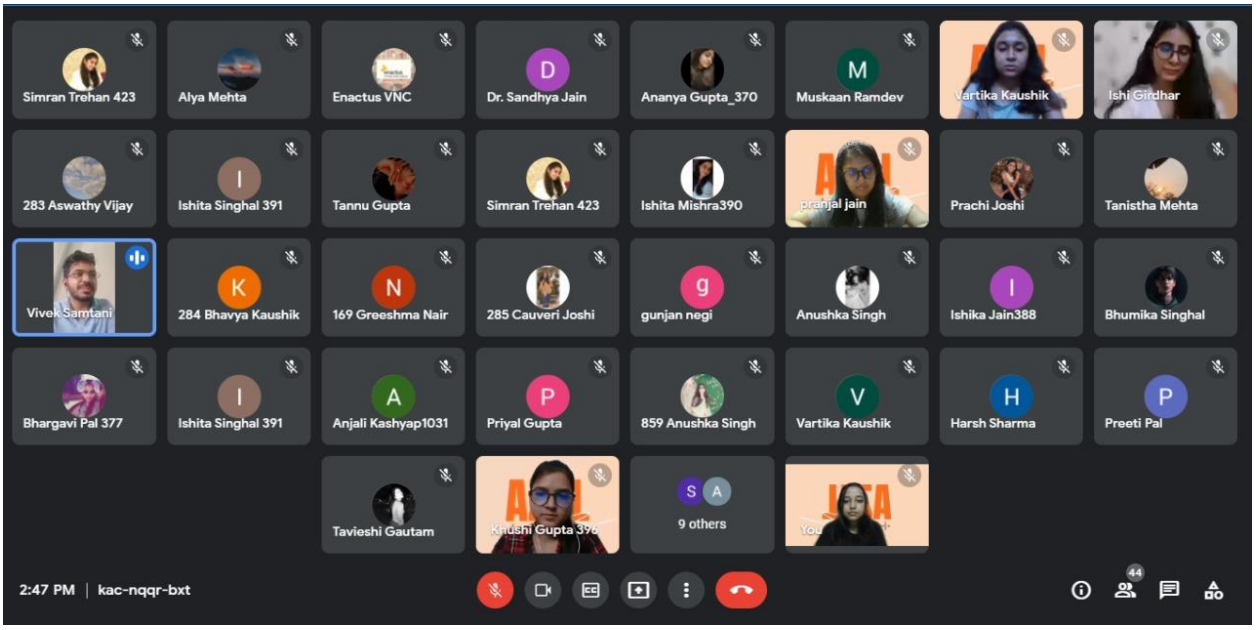

The fundraiser event- AZAL was organized by the team of ENACTUS VNC which took place on 9th October,2021 from 2pm-4pm on Google Meet. The event started off with great enthusiasm and was started with an on-loop video about Project "KIRAN". The event was attended by 43 students. The event started with encouragement speech by Convenor, Social Outreach and Community Development Committee, Dr. Sandhya Jain ma'am and Faculty Coordinator, Dr. Shafaq Zareen ma'am. After that there was a melodious performance by Ms. Prachi Sharma which left us awestruck. We had our core team members address on about our project "Kiran", how will the fundraiser help women of Jhilmil slums colony and what will be our future plans regarding the same, alongside a presentation made by the social media team. Then, there was a graceful Classical dance performance by Ms. Treepti. The event proceeds with a thrilling performance by "Meteorite Band". Then the event had a hilarious stand up comedy performance by one of our invited guest Mr. Vivek Samtani which made all our stomachs ache. Then we had Ms. Drishiti Makhijani from "Project Qadira" who spoke about women empowerment. One of the team members, Ms. Akshita recited her self composed poem. After the poem, Ms. Mridu Gupta, one of the invited speakers of our event talked about women health issues and presented us a very informative session full of discussion and awareness on the lesser known topics about women health. Then there was a dazzling dance performance by Ms. Tavieshi Gautam. Followed by another band performance by "Nitish Project", which was really soulful and created a nice environment around. And to end this event on lighter note we had Ms. Neha Gera who addressed all the feminine issues in a humorous manner. The session ended with a DJ session with DJ Parth on the zoom platform and vote of thanks was given by the core team members. The event had plethora of entertaining performances and discussions and all through the event, Funds were invited for our project which will be used to take a step forward towards our goal through the Project Kiran.

32. TEDxVivekanandaCollege

TEDxVivekanandaCollege organized its very first event online on 22nd January 2022 from 10:00 am to 7: 00 pm on VirCon24. The theme for the event was 'A Spark Within' which was explored by a panel of speakers from diverse fields. The guest speakers for the day were: Ms. Prakriti Prajapati, Ms. Yamini Reddy, Major Vivek Jacob, Ms. Pranjal Patil, Mr. Mussarat Hussain, Ms. Ameira Sikand, Shri Gauranga Das, Ms. Valentina Trivedi, Major Arun Ambathy, and Ms. Laara WilliamSen. The objective was for the numerous stories that were discussed about lives being a plethora of struggles and hope to reach out to the core of our being and impel us to carve our independent and confident path to greatness

To begin the day on a positive note, Mr Subhash Dhingra, our Chairperson, welcomed the esteemed speaker panel and our dear audience. Sir shared that learning is considered successful only when it brings about a positive and constructive change in the lives of the learners, enabling them to diversify their reasoning. He appreciated the importance of such events that help in shaping the mindsets of young inculcating skills related to critical reasoning, questioning, creativity, problem-solving. This was followed by welcome speech by Dr. Hina Nandarajog, Officiating Principal, Vivekananda College. Hina Mam continued with appreciating our respected speakers and mentioned how they had faced multiple setbacks in their lives and yet managed to achieve wonders, all because of their perseverance and resilience. She believes that every one of us is capable to be more than what we are; we grow, evolve and adapt from journeys we resonate with, which indeed gives us the feeling of not being alone in a world full of sufferings. It also provides us with much-needed hope and courage to move ahead when situations get tough. She welcomed the speakers and attendees to the program and commenced the program. This was followed by welcome note by Ms. Vandana Rathore, TEDxVivekanandaCollege coordinator who shared the TEDx Journey of organising the first ever TEDx event in college.

The commencement of the program happened with 'Devi Stuti' by Nrityam, the classical dance society of Vivekananda College.

The first speaker, Ms. Prakriti Prajapati, is an author and doctoral student at Penn State University She has worked at the Centre of Policy Research and IIT, Delhi. She has experience with understanding water-society relations, public policy, normative and professional ethics. Breaking through conventional academic norms. She explored the topic through her personal journey full of unconventional choices where she believed that sensitivity and compassion help her brighten the spark .

The second speaker for the day was Ms. Yamini Reddy. Ms Yamini Reddy is a Kuchipudi dancer, teacher and choreographer born to Padma Shri and Padma Bhushan Awardees Dr Raja and Radha Reddy. She adopted this dance form from a very young age and has performed globally along with opening dance schools. Ms. Yamini discussed the history and science of Dance, with her primary focus on Kuchipudi. She explained how dance is an integral part of our lives and it adds spark to our lives.

This was followed by a cultural performance by Mr. Ujith. Mr Ujith has been learning tabla from his father since the age of three and has been also training under Ustad Raffiudin Sabri (Tabla Maestro) for the last seven years. Mr Ujith's Tabla show was incredibly melodious and it indeed reflected his several years of training. The perfectly controlled hand movements accompanied with unmatched tunes was beyond pleasing. The young man's art and talent truly left the audience stunned.

This was followed by a interaction of student organisers, Ms. Priyanshi Bhatnagar and Ms. Yugmita kesh as they discussed their journey.

Following this was a session by Ms.Pranjal Patil, the DM of Shahdara, Government of NCT, New Delhi. Ms Pranjal talked about how inspiration is not just a strong feeling but a decision to be made, a promise to be made to ourselves. It was the company of family and friends who supported her in the journey and could look beyond her constraint of being visually impaired. She talked about how she could tackle her extremely challenging life with support of family, friends and motivation from books. Her attitude of facing life with attitude of a warrior also helped here.

Major Vivek Jacob who is a retired Special Forces operator and founder of C.L.A.W. was the fourth speaker of the day. He claimed that he has been highly driven by freedom, motivation and teamwork. In his talk, he mentioned how helping disabled people to experience the adventure of scuba diving gave meaning to his life. Training and conducting adventure sports for the specially abled has helped them understand the spark in a better manner.

This session was followed by session with Ms Ameira Sikand who is a feminist changemaker. Her speech revolved around the highly crucial topics, body liberation, body positivity, connection with one's own body, vulnerability, comprehension, holding space and worthiness.

Her talk session was followed by three enthralling cultural performances. Ms Rupita Gupta, a student at the University of Delhi amazed the audience with her beautiful pieces of paintings. Ms Tanvi Jain, an alumnus of Vivekananda College, the University of Delhi, presented the soothing process of her sketching and painting a beautiful picture. Ms Mamta Sharma Khanna, a human resource manager by her profession and a wonderful painter displayed her beautiful paintings and shared the value of painting in her life.

Mr Mussarat Hussain was welcomed as the sixth speaker for the day. He is Senior Advisor at Leadership and Functional School at Maruti Suzuki India Ltd. He spoke about how he has always been steered by honesty, integrity and a value system along with ethics. He focused mainly on perseverance, simplicity and resilience. Risk management, decision making and the right balance of everything is the recipe for success in the corporate world according to him. Towards the end of his talk, he talked about the importance of building networks and relationships.

Our seventh speaker of the day Shri Gauranga Das graced the event with his presence. He presented the ideas of 'The Bhagavad Gita' and imparted teachings for every heart that sought solutions. In his talk, he highlighted that ultimately it is the ability to sustain our actions and fight against odds that remains reliable in desolate times. Every word spoken was like teaching in disguise as he encouraged everyone not to let their mental state define their battles and not make failure their identity. He also ventured into the boundaries of integrity. He claimed it was about building a character that can survive a crisis intact, akin to how a building stays upright during an earthquake. The enlightening session ended on a note of reverence as he shined some light on the capacity for self-transformation present in the youth.

Ms. Valentina Trivedi followed up with her session and sprinkled her unique flavor of thinking as the eighth speaker of the day. She started by documenting her roots and elaborated on how being a single child affected her view of the world, reading and contemplation being her two primary friends. She aimed to share an ignitable spark with everyone. When one reaches a crossroad, the spark within remains relentless. She shared ways to connect with oneself and live in the present to discover the spark within.

Our ninth speaker of the day, Ms. Laara WilliamSen, made an unforgettable entrance by playing a clip of her captivating landscape paintings. Our ninth speaker of the day, Ms. Laara WilliamSen, joined soon after. She made an unforgettable entrance by playing a clip of her captivating landscape paintings.

Nearing the end, Major Arun Ambathy brightened our day as the tenth and final speaker of the day. He shared instances from his life that left a deep mark of respect on every young person's mind. His probation in the armed forces once again ignited his spark within, and he worked hard and successfully entered the parachute regiment of the special forces. After being hospitalised, he came across CLAW and found the stopping place he had been searching for all along. Through his rollercoaster of a journey, he conveyed his ideals of self-expression. He explained how the ultimate endgame is about what makes a person happy. It revolves around what they need to do to express themselves and understand their 'why'. He ended his introspection-filled session by imparting the advice for everyone to start small and continue to engage, express, and understand.

Marking the end of the day, our cultural performer Ms. Yashaswi Bhardwaj once again swept away the audience with her mesmerising voice.

The programme ended with a Vote of Thanks by the event organisers. This event was not possible thanks to the glamorous speakers, magnificent cultural artists, supportive sponsors, and the entire TEDx team. The support of College, Faculty Members and Non-Teaching staff was crucial for the successful completion of the event. The event ended on a note of hope, blossoming a spark within every heart.

33. "75 Years of India's_Independence"

On 15 August 2021, Sunday from 10 A.M. onwards, the Students' Union Advisory Committee of Vivekananda College celebrated 75 Years of India's Independence virtually with the link https://meet.google.com/xuc-hnja-kdv. Because of an overwhelming response, it was also broadcasted on YouTube with the link https://youtu.be/7yDkebxhRJc with more than 700 views. The theme for the celebrations was Aazadi ka Amrut Mahotsav, as given by the University wherein the students celebrated India's rich Culture and Heritage. A total of twelve college societies, along with the NSS, Ritva Foundation's Chapter and the college's wall magazine, Kastoori actively took part in the celebrations in various capacities. The event commenced with an introduction by the students of Aspiring Intellects: The Debating society, whereby they talked about India's vibrant traditions and rich heritage which make it culturally rich and diverse, followed by the National Anthem. The audience was then addressed by the college's Officiating Principal, Dr Hina Nandrajog whose words of wisdom resounded with the students encouraging them to follow a path such that it brings pride to their country. The programme then moved forward to a beautiful piece of self-composed poetry that was recited by one of the students from Ahsaas: The Creative Writing Society. The next performance was by Nrityam: The Classical Dance Society. Dhwani: The Classical Music Society elicited emotions of patriotism with our national song of Vande Mataram and other poignant patriotic melodies. Then, Alluring Dazzlers: The Fashion Society put on a beautiful show portraying India's traditional attires through the colourful lenses of various states. The National Service Scheme also participated and apprised the attendees about their history, role and notable contribution during and since Independence. Thirkan: The Folk Dance Society brought the event to life with their energy and vibrant folk dances from various states. The Eco-club conducted a short quiz and a programme on India's many regional sustainable practices. Through their performance, Vivacious: The Western Dance society portrayed the ongoing journey of women for equal rights and opportunities in an independent India. The volunteers of Ritva Foundation's Chapter presented poetry by renowned poets and freedom fighters and unheard stories of brave women in the freedom struggle. This was followed by an introduction to Kastoori - the wall magazine. As the final performance, the Photography Society, Click 'O'Mania, and the Art & Craft Society, Kalakriti put together the contributions of the student members of the societies to show various cultures, art styles and rich heritage of India. The event ended with Vote of Thanks delivered by the Convener of the Students' Union Advisory Committee, Mrs Seema Taneja.

34. Teachers' Day Celebration

The students of Vivekananda College celebrated Teachers' Day on 5th September 2021 from 10 a.m. onwards, virtually through Google Meet with the link https://meet.google.com/xuc-hnja-kdv . Due to the prevailing global pandemic and rise of Online Education, it has been an arduous year for the teachers and hence in order to express gratitude for their selfless contribution and appreciate their efforts, an initiative was taken by the students of the college to organise a grand cultural event on Teacher's Day under the guidance of the Officiating Principal, Dr Hina Nandrajog, support of the Convenor of Students' Union Advisory Committee Mrs Seema Taneja, and Teacher Coordinator, Dr Muskaan. The event received an overwhelming response from the teachers and was also broadcasted on Youtube with the link https://youtu.be/7EvQuru2vwQ with views reaching around 400. Students from nine societies of the college along with Ritva Foundations' Chapter gathered to honour the teachers. The event commenced with an introduction by the students of Ennoia- The Debating society in which they talked about the importance of teachers in an individual's life. This was followed by a tribute to the teachers by Nrityam The Classical Dance Society through their performance on Guru Vandana. Then, Thirkan The Folk Dance Society brought the event to life with their performance on retro-Bollywood songs. The programme then moved forward with beautiful pieces of poetry for the beloved teachers by the newly formed Awaz Club in which they expressed their deep gratitude for the teachers. The Ritva Foundations' Chapter entertained the teachers with their amusing games and fun activities. Vivacious The Western Dance Society's performance left everyone delighted. This was followed by some fond memories shared by the graduates of the college. Kalakriti The Art&Craft Society presented the teachers with a beautiful self-made card and dedicated some art pieces to them. Ahsaas The Creative Writing Society presented a quiz to entertain the teachers. Dhwani The Classical Music Society sang some melodious songs for the teachers. As the final performance of the day, Click 'O' Mania The Photography Society presented a delightful movie thanking teachers across all the departments for their continuous efforts, support and guidance to each and every student. In the last segment of the programme, the officiating principal addressed the audience with her encouraging words. Lastly, The Convenor of the Students' Union Advisory Committee, Mrs Seema Taneja, delivered the Vote of Thanks. No programme is successful without the combined efforts of an entire hardworking, dedicated and passionate team. The core team consisted of Yugmita Kesh (Student Coordinator), Ekta Sharma (Student Co-Coordinator), Parul Valecha, Umaima and Ananya Mehrotra (Technical and Logistics) and Kinjal Nanda and Atlanta (Anchors).

35. 73rd Republic Day

As part of the Azaadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Students' Union Advisory Committee, Vivekananda College, University of Delhi organized the 73rd Republic Day on 26 January 2022 from 11 a.m. onwards on Google Meet platform with the link https://meet.google.com/vun-kacvpzk?hs=224. The event was also streamed live on Youtube with the link https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0JwXF8K9_co and has garnered 431 views already. The event was hosted by Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee and the Google Meet capacity was completely full with the attendance reaching 101 participants within minutes. The event was anchored by Umaima and Divyanshi who introduced the meaning and importance of Republic Day, especially it being the 73rd Republic Day of India. It began with the National Anthem followed by the address of Dr. Hina Nandrajog, Officiating Principal, Vivekananda College whose words of wisdom resounded with the students encouraging them to follow a virtuous path. Then there was a beautiful collaboration by Dhwani (Indian Classical Music Society) and Nrityam (Indian Classical Dance Society) as they performed on various patriotic songs. The Open Mic Society informed the audience regarding Constitutional Morality, read their selfwritten poem, sang a beautiful song and showed their artwork. Enactus Society entertained the audience with a very interesting and interactive quiz session. Through a very informative PowerPoint presentation, Financio Society alerted everyone about the various financial schemes introduced by the Prime Minister of India. The Eartha Foundation shared lesser known facts about the Republic Day through a very educative presentation. Kalakriti enthralled everyone with beautiful art and craft created by the students on the occasion of Republic Day. The feeling of patriotism was heightened by the passionate self written poetry by Ehsaas, the Creative Writing Society. Alluring Dazzlers, the Fashion Society made everyone spellbound with their concept by depicting independent, brave and bold women in various professions. It was followed by another outstanding collaboration between Vivacious, the Western Dance Society and Thirkan, the Folk Dance Society, as they dance on various patriotic tunes and folk songs wearing traditional costumes. Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee was then invited to deliver the vote of thanks. Umaima and Divyanshi concluded the event by mentioning the pride and glory associated with the special day while photographs clicked by Clickomania, the Photography Society, were shown in the background. The programme was greatly appreciated by everybody.

44. Oxford Style Debate Competition

For Pallavi 2022, the Annual Cultural Festival of Vivekananda College, Ennoia the Debating Society planned to organize an Oxford Style Debate Competition.

Oxford style debate is a competitive format of debating, which contains an opening statement, rebuttal and closing statement.

The Oxford Style Debate Competition, organized by Ennoia, the Debating Society of Vivekananda College, started off with the registration of 28 students from all over the world, through Google forms, 16 February 2022 onwards on the link https://forms.gle/JtX7mECJesbzUfqb6. On 23 February 2022, 12:00 PM; the preliminary round of the modified oxford style debate was held under the supervision of Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee, teacher coordinator of Énnoia on Discord platform with the link https://discord.gg/QRKHvrwJ. The participants were divided into groups of two (proposition and opposition), that deliberated their stances and notions on the assigned topic - "eliminating the stratification of public and private schools can lead to more equitable education." Three debate chambers were created on the said platform for a more effective and efficient selection procedure. Out of these 28 participants, 6 were selected for the final round. The experienced adjudicators for the preliminary round were Mr. Narayan Sharma (B.Com. Sri Venkateshwara College, President of Debating Society, finalist at Asia's largest debating tournament and World Debate Open and many others), Ms. Anjani (well established debater and adjudicator) and Mr. Sudeep Krishna (B.A.L.L.B. Jamia Millia Islamia, Student-in Charge of the Debating Society of Jamia Millia Islamia, judge for Speak India- India's biggest speech competition).

On 24 February 2022, 1:00 PM; the final round of the competition was held on the Google platform with link - https://meet.google.com/oyp-exui-mgz under the supervision of Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee. Out of the final 6 participants, 3 supported the motion, while the other 3 opposed the assigned theme - "the legal liability of pharmacists and physicians affects patient care". A heated debate took place where both the proposition and the opposition presented their views beautifully.

The event was judged by esteemed judges- Ms. Sheena Lama, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Vivekananda College, University of Delhi, and Ms. Deborisha Dutta, Assistant Professor (Sr. Scale), School of Law, the NorthCap University, Gurgaon. The winners were announced on the basis of how the participants executed their arguments, their clarity of thought, and their articulation.
The intent of the trial was to hone the public speaking skills of the students and guide them to be articulate while expressing their thoughts. During both events, participants put forward their stimulating view, with wit and confidence. Interesting points of view and statistics shook the audience and the judges. while some talked about the great burden, lack of legal liabilities pose on patient care; others expressed their concerns about how pharmacists and physicians are trapped in a snare when patients present themselves in emergencies.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee (teacher coordinator of Ennoia) and Assistant Professor, Department of English, Vivekananda College.

Out of 28, three outstanding participants were awarded as winners which included:

First Position: Ojasvi Gupta;
(Bharati College, University of Delhi, Journalism Honours, Ist Year)
Second Position: Natasha Aziz

(Department of Law, Calcutta University, B.A. LLB, IIIrd Year)

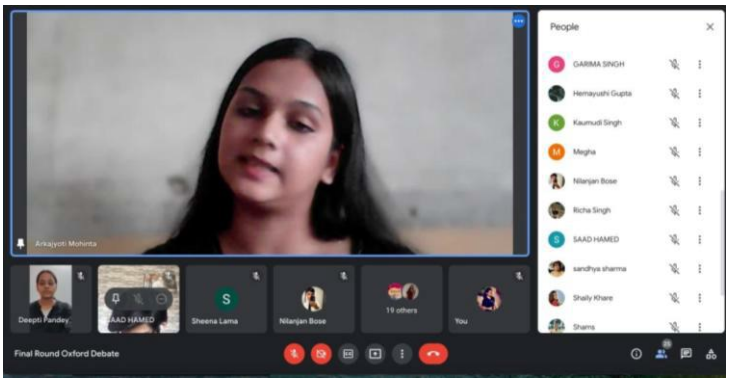

Third Position: Mohammad Shams Uddoha Khan

(Aligarh Muslim University, B.A. Honours English Literature, IInd year)

The event was successful with participants turning in with enthusiasm.

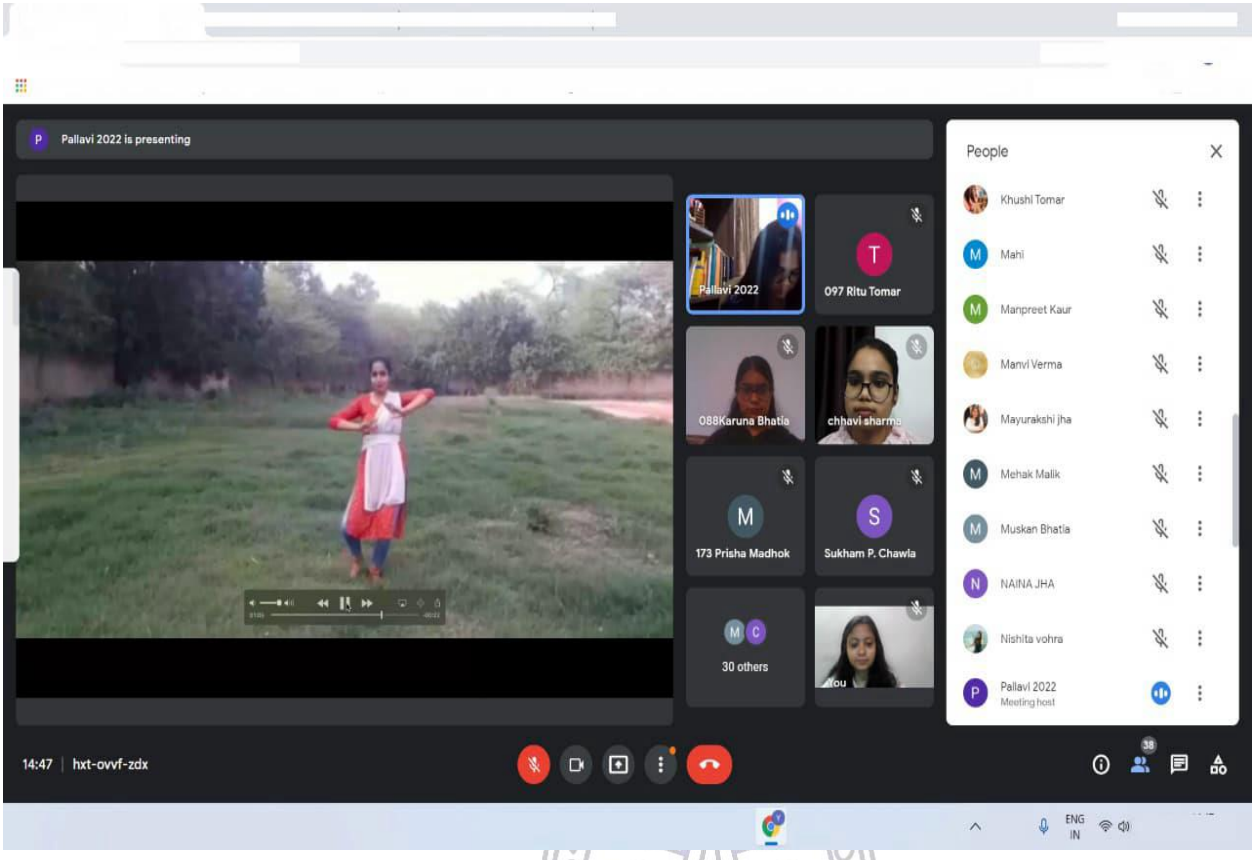

The team INFORMATICA is delighted with the success of its another event and hope that the IT society will continue to provide a platform for students to showcase their knowledge.

The Department of French, Vivekananda College organized a cultural event as part of "Pallavi Fest 2022". Various competitions related to French culture were held to familiarize students of the Department and College with the rich heritage of the language that they are learning and also the culture and civilization of France. The competitions were namely - French singing competition, French poem recitation competition and Poster making competition on the topic- "Culture and civilisation of France". The competitions were judged by an external judge, Sukham Panesar, Assistant Professor (French) of Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi. The 3 best entries in all three competitions were awarded and their entries in form of audio and video recordings were shown on the day of the event. The event included other activities also such as a traditional welcome dance on French music. It was a unique sight as it was a blend of the 2 cultures: Indian traditional dance, i.e., Bharatanatyam and French music. This was followed by depiction of winning entries. There were other dance performances as well. A student also depicted the story of "The ant and the grasshopper" by Jean de la Fontaine through a time-lapse video of her art work. The event was attended by approx. 38 participants including teachers and students.

वार्षिक महोत्सव "पल्लवी" 2022 के अवसर पर हिंदी-विभाग द्वारा आयोजित "धरोहर" (मातृभाषा गीतप्रतियोगिता) आज़ादी का अमृत महोत्सव के संदर्भ में

24 फरवरी 2022 को हमारे महाविद्यालय द्वारा पल्लवी 2022 के अवसर पर हिंदी विभाग द्वारा आयोजित ' धरोहर ' मातृभाषा गीत प्रतियोगिता आयोजित की गई। प्रतियोगिता दोपहर 3:00 बजे प्रारंभ हुई। इस प्रतियोगिता के आयोजक प्राचार्या के रूप में डॉ हिना नंदराजोग , विभागाध्यक्ष के रूप में डॉ मुकेश वर्णवाल , संयोजक डॉ मीना पाण्डेय और छात्रा संयोजक के रूप में तृतीय वर्ष हिंदी विशेष की दो छात्राएं रेशमा और पूनम पाण्डेय रही। बाह्य निर्णायक के रूप में कालिंदी महाविद्यालय के अध्यापक डॉ हेमंत रमन रवि और बतौर आंतरिक निर्णायक के रूप में विवेकानंद महाविद्यालय की अध्यापिका डॉ प्रतिभा जैमिनी रही। दोनो ही निर्णायक सदस्य भोज साहित्य के मर्मज्ञ विद्वान है।

इस कार्यक्रम की शुरुआत डॉ मुकेश वर्णवाल ने की और धरोहर प्रतियोगिता रखने का कारण बताया और कहा की आज कल हम सभी जिस पीढ़ी से गुजर रहे है वे पीढ़ी अपनी मातृभाषा बोलने में लगभग शर्म महसूस करने लगी है। वे केवल हिंदी और अंग्रेजी पर ही केंद्रित रह गए है। और एक समय ऐसा भी होगा जब हमारे पास मातृभाषा के नाम पर केवल यादें रह जायेंगी। तो ये ही वजह है इस प्रतियोगिता को आयोजित करने की।

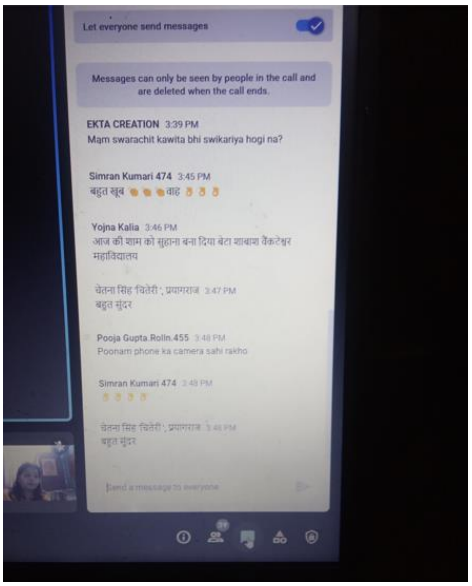

डॉ मीना पाण्डेय द्वारा सभी प्रतिभागियों, दर्शकों, निर्णायक सदस्यों का प्रतियोगिता में अभिवादन किया गया और डॉ सरोज द्वारा धरोहर प्रतियोगिता की शुरुआत कुछ आशीष वचन के साथ हुई इसकी शुरुआत उन्होंने भारतेंदु जी के प्रसिद्ध वचन निज भाषा उन्नति अहै, सब उन्नति को मूल। बिन निज भाषा ज्ञान के , मिटत न हिय को सूल। से की और बताया कि मातृभाषा हमारे जीवन में कितना महत्व रखती है। डॉ मीना पाण्डेय ने मंच संचालन की जिम्मेदारी छात्र संयोजक को दी। दोनो संयोजको ने निर्णायक मंडल का संक्षिप्त परिचय से शुरुआत की और प्रतियोगिता का आगाज़। प्रतियोगिता में प्रतिभागियों के शानदार प्रदर्शन से हम सभी ने कई मातृभाषाओं को जाना जिसमे बिहारी , भोजपुरी , छत्तीसगढ़ी, गुजराती, नागपुरी, गढ़वाली, उड़िया, उर्दू, अवधी , और खड़ी बोली हिन्दी के कई गीत सुनने को मिले। सभी के गीत सुनने पर,ज्ञात हुआ कि हम अपने भारत देश को विविधताओं के एकता वाला देश क्यों कहते है? प्रत्येक प्रतिभागी ने गीत के माध्यम से अपने प्रांत का परिचय हम सभी से करवाया।

प्रतियोगिता ऑनलाइन आयोजित की गई थी, जिसमे विभिन्न प्रांतों के लगभग 20 से 25 प्रतिभागियों ने भाग लिया था।

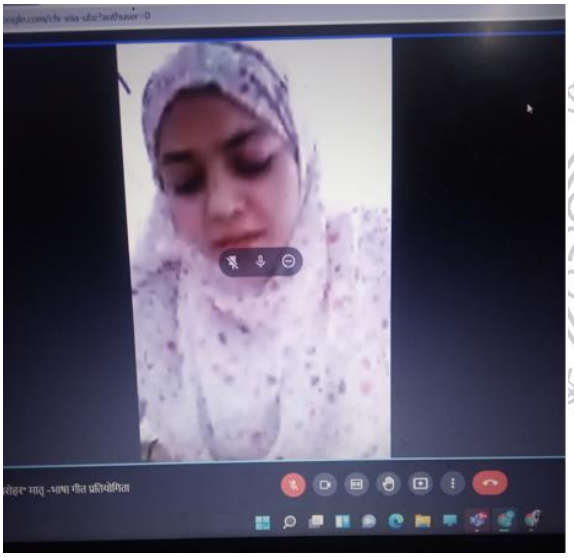

इस प्रतियोगिता में प्रथम पुरस्कार नेहा कुमारी ने प्राप्त किया , जिन्होंने नागपुरी गीत गाया था। द्वितीय पुरुस्कार की विजेता सुमन आर्य रहीं इन्होंने गढ़वाली गीत गाया था । तृतीय पुरस्कार वंदना कौशल (भोजपुरी गीत) ने प्राप्त किया ।

अंत में , डॉ योजना कालिया जी ने आयोजक मण्डल के सभी सदस्यों, श्रोताओं, प्रतिभागियों और निर्णायक मण्डल का औपचारिक धन्यवाद ज्ञापन किया को मंच पर आमंत्रित किया । इस तरह कार्यक्रम सफलतापूर्वक शाम 5:30 बजे संपन्न हुआ ।

58. "AZAL 2.0"

AZAL 2.0, a fundraiser event was organized by Enactus Vivekananda College in collaboration with Orooj India on 25th February, 2022 from 2pm to 3pm in online mode under the Convenorship of Dr. Sandhya Jain and Faculty coordinator Dr. Shafaq Zareen. The event was attended by 76 students. The main aim of this event was to ensure that the underprivileged women live with dignity and to distribute sanitary pads to underprivileged menstruators residing in slum areas of Jhilmil colony, VNC camp.

The event began with a glimpse to the journey of the Enactus Project "KIRAN".

Thereon, Ishika Gupta and Tammanna from Team Orooj India enlightened us with the importance of women empowerment in this day and age and also about the myths and taboos about menstruation.

59. "ORPHIC 2022"

VIVACIOUS, the Western Dance Society of Vivekananda College, is an expression of the collective creative energy of the students of the college. At Vivacious, the hidden dancer in students is brought out by its members through constant hard work, practice and perseverance. The society aims to celebrate the rhythm of life in all its forms. To augment this commitment the society has a presence on popular social media platform Instagram by the handle name @vivaciousdancesociety and is run by the student members of the society.

The idea behind ORPHIC is to go beyond the ordinary as the word entails. It is to explore the subliminal and mystical aura of our existences and express the same through dance.
Like last year, undeterred by the challenges thrown in by Covid, the society organised its much coveted inter-college event ORPHIC in the mega annual festival Pallavi.
